Dear Sir or Madame,

On November 3-d, 2003 I mailed a complaint to your Field Office (copy attached). On November 6-~~th~~ I received a telephone call from a person who said she was calling from the FBI, although she did not tell either her name, or position she held. From this telephone conversation I learned, that there is going to be no investigation into the submitted complaint.

I would like to thank you for your consideration and respectfully ask for a written response to my complaint.

Sincerely,

Sergei Vadimovich Baranov
